

To: Jones, Joel E.[Jones.Joel@epa.gov]
From: Steve Brittle
Sent: Mon 10/31/2016 7:28:50 PM
Subject: Fw: pic
Arlington Manure Dust Emission-1.jpg

The manure from both the Tonopah and Arlington facilities are processed into manure pellets at the Arlington facility. The dust emissions are almost constant. The manure, of course, contains ammonia, and more is released during the drying process. Dead chickens are also ground up and added to the mixture being dried and processed. We are also aware that dead chickens are being landfilled in some cases.

Steve Brittle

Don't Waste Arizona